Mission statement of our school

Our school exists for its children. We celebrate the uniqueness of each child as it is expressed in his/her personality, intelligence and potential for development.

The curriculum we provide recognises the integrity of the child’s life as a child and allows for the active involvement of children in a learning process that is imaginative and stimulating with our overall vision seeking to enable children to meet with self-confidence and assurance, the demands of life, both now and in the future.

We strive to provide a well-ordered, caring, happy and secure atmosphere where the child’s intellectual, physical and cultural needs are identified and addressed. We seek to draw out their special and particular gifts, fostering in them a love of learning which will remain with them through all stages of formal education and beyond and that will express itself in an enquiring mind and a heightened curiosity which will enrich their lives in the present and in the future.

A Catholic ethos permeates the life of our school and we seek to develop children spiritually and morally and to foster in them an ethical sense that will enable them to acquire values on which to base choices and form attitudes.

We strive to promote, both individually and collectively, the professional and personal development of teachers and we welcome and encourage the involvement of parents, in the knowledge that they are the primary educators of our children and that co-operation between home and school is essential to the effectiveness of our school as an educational institution.

We endeavour to enhance the self-esteem of everyone in the school community, to imbue in the pupils respect for people and property and to encourage in them the celebration of difference and the uniqueness of each person in the school and in the outside world.
